By United Press Wire.
Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 8.—Local suffragettes are indignant today over the "charge of corruption," published in "antagonistic papers," this morning. Alleging that only a little more than half the votes polled at the woman work election yesterday were recorded in the final count, so that a plurality could be shown for William H. Berry, the Keystone candidate for governor, the publications charge the women with inaccurate counting of the ballots.

In the "final returns" made public today, the women showed a preference for Berry to the tune of 617 to 190 for Tener, the Republican candidate. Five other candidates were given a scattering vote totalling 148 for the bunch of them. The members of the Equal Franchise league of Western Pennsylvania are not only indignant over the charge of "graft" today, but are also "busy." Those who are fortunate enough to have a "voter" as well as a mock vote are bringing pressure to bear on said "voter" to "do as I say."

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 8.—Election morning dawned with a wet snow falling, later developing into a drizzle and continued at intervals throughout the greater part of the early day. Regardless of the weather voting began early throughout Luzerne county and continued briskly. The county is expected to be for George R. McLean, Democrat, in looking to defeat C. C. Bowman, Republican, for congress in the Eleventh district. The place is now held by a standpat.

Asa K. DeWitt, Democrat, looks like a winner over Edward James, Republican, for state senator in the Twentieth. Mr. James is the incumbent of the office now.

Williamsport, Pa., Nov. 8.—Though the weather following a fall of snow was raw and threatening election interest was early manifested at the polls in this city and indications for the country district point to a vote above the normal on gubernatorial year. A strong Berry sentiment prevails and though this county is Democratic it would be no surprise if Berry should carry it.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—With ideal weather conditions prevailing, indications early today were that a heavy vote would be polled in this city. Intense interest in the local situation, if nothing else, will result in a big vote here. Reports from outside points are that a heavy state vote will be registered. Fair weather is general all over the state.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 8.—With perfect weather conditions throughout the state, one of the greatest election fights in the history of the state began today with a heavy early morning vote.

Leaders of both sides already claim majorities in both the gubernatorial and congressional fights.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 8.—With fair but chilly and in northern section, cold weather prevailing, a heavy early vote was polled today, according to reports from all parts of the state. The issue in the congressional districts is standpatism. A heavy vote is expected. Both Republicans and Democrats are confident of victory.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 8.—With an overcast sky and warm weather, a heavy vote is being polled here today. Chief interest centers in the congressional fight, which has been the most stubbornly fought in many years, and the result will be very close in all districts.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 8.—With ideal weather for a brief election day, Grand Rapids voters are voting rapidly this morning. Interest is intense in the Fifth congressional district because of the race between Congressman Dickema of Holland and Edwin F. Sweet of this city. Much slashing is being done by the voters.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—With ideal weather conditions prevailing an unusually heavy early vote was cast in Chicago today. This was especially true in the industrial sections of the city where political leaders reported that almost every laborer and factory worker went to the polls before 7 o'clock.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 8.—Despite the heavy, wet snowfall, a heavy early vote was polled. Interest centered in the congressional fight, the Republicans making a desperate fight to capture the district. Berry will probably carry the county.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Snow fell during the morning but the storm had little effect on the volume of votes. Half of Albany's vote was cast before 11 o'clock. Considerable cutting is reported in many of the city districts.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 8.—A perfect fall day with good roads in the country, together with intense interest, brought out an early vote in Iowa. There was much scratching of tickets.

Johnstown, Pa., Nov. 8.—Typical election day weather, chilly, with occasional flakes of snow. Very heavy vote on account of interest in triangular gubernatorial contest.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 8.—An early vote of unusual proportions is reported from all parts of the state today. The weather is clear and crisp. The Republicans are claiming sure victory by large pluralities but Democrats declare they will elect their candidate for governor and the Socialists assert they are sure to win congressional seats in the Fourth and Fifth districts.

Milwaukee city results will be known early, as voting machines are in use.

Muncie, Ind., Nov. 8.—With weather conditions ideal, indications were for an exceedingly heavy vote early this morning, but in the city of Muncie seven of the voting machines are out of order and hundreds of voters were unable to vote. In one precinct in the city more than a hundred have been waiting since 6 o'clock to vote, but not one vote has been cast.

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 8.—Despite the fact that Kansas heretofore solid Republican congressional delegation is admittedly in danger and the chance of a Democratic victory in some of the state office contests are considered strong, only a normal vote was cast during the early hours today.

Ideal weather prevailed throughout the state.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 8.—Election day here opened cold and chilly. Light vote was cast during the morning, owing to the large number of factories not closing until noon. Reports are that Republicans are cutting own congressional candidate for Barnhart, Democratic seeking re-election.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 8.—State county and city authorities ruled with an iron hand today at the polls throughout the state and the expected outbreak by negroes refused the right to vote, under the "grandfather clause" amendment failed to materialize.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 8.—Governor Haskell ordered Company M. Oklahoma National guard to report at the local armory and prepare to make a hasty trip to Guthrie to quell riots among negroes which are threatening there.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 8.—Unusual interest in the election is indicated in Minnesota by reports of heavy voting in the early hours which are coming in from all parts of the state. Ideal weather prevails everywhere.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 8.—Proposed state-wide prohibition brought out Missouri voters today in unprecedented numbers. At one South St. Louis voting place a crowd of 400 men waited for the polls to open. Weather conditions were favorable.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 8.—Weather conditions were perfect in Nebraska and voters went to the polls early. The intense interest in the liquor question promises to result in the heaviest off year in the history of the state.

Denver, Col., Nov. 8.—Weather was ideal for election and managers of all parties expected to poll an exceptionally heavy vote. Reports from all over the state indicate similar conditions.

McKeesport, Pa., Nov. 8.—Overcast and umbrella weather but the vote is heavy because of Delzell-Black congressional fight. Unusual cutting of ticket. Early vote unprecedented.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 8.—Louisiana and Mississippi voters are electing congressmen. Only mild interest was shown in the early voting. Weather is threatening.

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 8.—The election of state officers in Texas today brought out a normal vote. Fair and cool weather prevailed over the state.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Nov. 8.—Election weather is perfect here and a heavy vote is being polled.

HIGH JINKS CUT UP BY HIGH SCHOOL BOYS

By United Press Wire.
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The exuberance of American youth won a temporary victory today when the boys of the Poughkeepsie high school won an strike because the board of education ignored their petition for a holiday. The boys successfully resisted the efforts of Principal Fox and several policemen who were called to his aid to protect the school property and finally capped their victory by locking within the school building the principal and his bluecoated assistants.

The boys then paraded the streets, giving their school yell at every corner.

The aftermath is likely to be wholesale expulsions. Superintendent Shear says he has the names of the leaders and will make them suffer the heaviest possible penalty.

Mr. Hearst referred to the Democratic candidates as "Murphy's appendix" and only one New York newspaper saw the pun.

The Governor Votes.
Cincinnati, O., Nov. 8.—Governor Harmon, wearing a campaign hat and looking as fresh as a schoolboy, appeared at the voting booth at 2426 Gilbert avenue this morning and cast his vote.

Quite a number of the governor's old neighbors and friends who had expected him earlier in the day, waited so that they might shake hands with him and tell him how much interested they were in his election.

The governor knew all the booth officials personally and greeted them by their first names.

Immediately after voting, the governor went to his office, where he remained a short time before returning to Columbus, where he, with the members of his family, will receive the returns tonight.

That Harmon has not lost any of his friends among the railroad men, was demonstrated when he alighted from the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton train Tuesday morning.

All of the trainmen who were about the station rushed up to offer their best wishes.

Feeling the Landslide.

Columbus, O., Nov. 8.—The silent voter today is writing Ohio's verdict in a state, legislative and congressional election upon which the eyes of the nation are focused. Reports from all parts of the state indicating a heavy vote with much scratching being done, point to a Democratic landslide to Harmon, say Democratic leaders.

At Republican state headquarters, Chairman Laylin made no comment on the early morning reports. The heavy vote polled early in the rural districts was especially pleasing to Democratic leaders at state headquarters. It told the story of superior organization. Coupled with this, was the report that the rural voter was taking his time in marking his ballot and was scratching heavily.

yl. This seemed especially true in Republican counties. Politicians interpreted this as a protest against the national administration.

Because of the heavy vote and the scratching of ballots, both headquarters agree that returns will be late in coming in. Nothing much from the state at large is looked for before 9 o'clock.

Times Star Concedes 20,000 to Harmon
Cincinnati, O., Nov. 8.—In its sixth edition which goes on the street at 11 o'clock, the Times-Star practically concedes the election to Governor Harmon and that Governor Harmon will carry Hamilton county by a larger vote than he had two years ago.

After completely canvassing the city, the Times-Star says that in the strong German wards of the West End, Harmon was holding the huge vote he received two years ago.

Of the hill-top wards, the Times-Star says:

"There were indications that Harmon was running better on the hills-tops than he did two years ago."

Cleveland Conceded by 10,000.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 8.—County Recorder Maurice Maschke, recognized political authority among Republicans, today, conceded Cuyahoga county to Harmon by a plurality between 7,000 and 10,000. Harmon's plurality two years ago in this county was 1,700.

Sandusky, O., Nov. 8.—Weather fair, betting odds favor Harmon and most of the Democratic county ticket. Much scratching is noted. Vote heavy.

Galion, O., Nov. 8.—Weather fair. The election of the Democratic county ticket is conceded on a light vote.

Ashland, O., Nov. 8.—Fair and cold weather. Vote up to 10:30 was light with indications of a normal Democratic majority.

THE WEST JOINING THE

East And all Going Democratic — Massachusetts And Kansas Join The Earthquake.

By United Press Wire.
Topeka, Kas., Nov. 8.—Reports of scratched ballots throughout the state received here this afternoon have made Republican apprehensive that a Democratic landslide in the gubernatorial contest is being precipitated by the railroad men which may spell the defeat of Governor W. R. Stubbs for re-election.

These reports say that because of the bitter attacks of the Kansas executive on the railroads and especially those in Kansas, the railroad men as a body are voting for Stubbs' Democratic opponent, George M. Hodges, and Republican the remainder of the ticket.

Republican leaders here claimed the state for Stubbs by a 30,000 majority but indications are that this majority will be cut down to at least 5,000 and possibly disappear.

Massachusetts.
Avon, Mass., Nov. 8.—The first town in Massachusetts to report its vote this afternoon was Avon. It gave: Pios, Democrat, 201; Draper, Republican, 194. Last year Vahey, the Democratic candidate for governor, received 165 and Draper Republican, 112.

Holbrook, Mass., Nov. 8.—The vote for the town of Holbrook for governor was: Draper, Republican, 213; Pios, Democrat, 169.

Last year Draper, Republican, received 243; Vahey, Democrat, 149.

New Bedford, Mass., Nov. 8.—Four precincts in New Bedford gave: Draper, Republican, 757; Pios, Democrat, 1,065. Same precincts last year gave Draper 757; Vahey, Democrat, 846.

Acushnet, Mass., Nov. 8.—The vote for governor in this town was: Draper, Republican, 72; Pios, Democrat, 23.

Last year Draper received 71 and Vahey, Democrat, 14.

For lieutenant governor, [Prothmington, Republican, today received 75; Cassidy, Democrat, 14.

A Head-On Collision.

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 8.—Engineer Al Wilson was killed and four other train men seriously injured in a head-on collision on the Santa Fe railroad near here early today. A misunderstanding of orders was responsible.

BILLY TAFT CONGRATULATES

Harding That While He Has Let the Party to Defeat Yet There is a Little Hope Left.

By United Press Wire.
Cincinnati, O., Nov. 8.—Soon after arriving in Cincinnati to vote this morning, President Taft sent the following telegram to Warren G. Harding, at Marion:

"I congratulate you on your wonderful canvass. No matter what the result today, you have commended yourself to your fellow citizens and have effectively united Republican ranks for future contests."

—William H. Taft.

RIGO KILLED JONES AT THE

Ohio Penitentiary Today Cutting Him to Pieces With a Knife.

By United Press Wire.
Columbus, O., Nov. 8.—Encouraged over a disagreement about who should serve the butter for the prisoners' dinner at the penitentiary this afternoon, James Rigo, white, serving life sentence for second degree murder from Lorain county, attacked John Jones, colored, serving a life sentence for a similar offense from Clark county, and killed him by literally cutting him to pieces with a two-inch knife. He was stabbed eight times. Among his wounds were a two-inch stab in the heart, a two-inch stab in the back and a cut which severed his jugular vein, any one of which would have caused death.

Both men were inmates of the prison. Before coming to the penitentiary, Rigo was confined in the Massillon insane asylum.

Jones was regarded as a bad man by penitentiary officials. Shortly after coming to the penitentiary, he attacked a guard, who shot off his right ear. In 1899 he attacked Ira Marshall, who at that time was the penitentiary demon. He was then sent to the asylum, where he has been ever since.

Warden Jones was notified of the killing and came at once to the penitentiary. He ordered Rigo confined to a cell in the asylum, where he will be kept. Because Rigo is a maniac, nothing will be done about the murder.

Toledo Reports Light Vote And Plenty of Scratching—A Great Fight on Hunt of Cincinnati.

By United Press Wire.
Cincinnati, O., Nov. 8.—Harmon was a favorite in the betting in Cincinnati on the eve of the election. There were only a few bets reported but in all the bets made Harmon was a favorite not only on the general result but on the result in Hamilton county.

One man was reported to have a bet of two and a half to one on Harmon's election. One bet was reported in which a local Democrat bet $100 to $50 that Harmon would carry Hamilton county.

Although the Republican organization posted a bet of $5,000 to $5,000 that Darby would be elected prosecuting attorney, they refused to cover some of this money when it was offered Monday night.

Cincinnati, Nov. 8.—Two arrests were made in this city shortly after the polls opened on charges of illegal registration. The early vote was heavy. The weather was fair. The Republican organization gave orders to its partisans to throw all the support they could to Thomas Darby, candidate for prosecutor against Prosecuting Attorney Henry T. Hunt, Democrat.

The early indications are that Governor Harmon will carry Hamilton county by a big majority. Harmon came to Cincinnati before 8 o'clock and voted. President Taft reached Cincinnati shortly after 10 o'clock to vote. He leaves in the afternoon for Washington.

Columbus, O., Nov. 8.—A canvass of the city at 9 o'clock this morning indicated a normal vote. In districts where shop men live, the vote was heavy during the first hour. Many were waiting for the polls to open at 3:30.

The weather was cloudy and threatening snow. This silent vote was more in evidence than usual, with evidence of a heavy Socialist vote.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 8.—More than forty per cent. of the voters of Cleveland cast their ballots during the first four hours after the opening of the polls. This is considered a record. The weather is biting cold and the skies are threatening.

Toledo, O., Nov. 8.—Light vote was being polled during the early hours with plenty of scratching. Registration was very light and indications are that total vote will be far short. The weather is clear and cool.

Canton, O., Nov. 8.—With overcast skies and cool weather, indications are that an unusual heavy vote would be polled in this city. Much scratching is being done.

Akron, O., Nov. 8.—The voting here was heavy in the early hours with an average number of ballots cast. The weather is threatening.

Dayton, O., Nov. 8.—The early vote here was unusually heavy. Weather is favorable.

TROUBLE BREWS BETWEEN THE

Negroes And Whites In Oklahoma And May Result In Battle.

By United Press Wire.
Muskogee, Okla., Nov. 8.—Trouble broke out between negroes and whites at Fussy Creek precinct in Wagoner county and the negroes took possession of the polling place, throwing out the white officers, shortly before noon today. Fussy Creek is four miles from Coweta, the nearest white town, and is in the heart of a big negro settlement. A runner was despatched by the election officers asking for immediate help. Two automobiles with fifteen men armed with rifles, started for the scene. Others followed.

These men will attempt to put election officers back in control and disarm the negroes nearly all of whom are carrying guns. When the whites arrive, it is expected a battle will follow. Negroes offered affidavits of their qualifications to vote but none have been allowed to cast a ballot and this started the trouble. Negroes a Coweta are sullen, but no demonstration has been made yet.

A company of militia is under arms at Guthrie and will be dispatched to any point where troops are needed.

The negroes were deprived of their votes through the passage of the famous "grandfather" clause amendment to the state constitution.

A HEAVY VOTE BEING CAST

In New York City And the Electors Forming in Solid Lines Early

BUT BETTING LIGHTER THAN

Usual in That Metropolis. Election Captains Began At Three O'clock

To Line up Their Men In The Tenement Houses On The Lower East Side Precincts.

Democrats, Claiming It by 100,000; Roosevelt by 25,000; Odds Are About 3 to 1 in Dix's Favor.

By United Press Wire.
New York, Nov. 8.—Early hours at the polls here today indicated that the vote will be one of the heaviest cast in years.

In spite of a cold, blustering morning, in which the first snow of the season changed into rain and then back into snow, the polls had hardly opened at 6 o'clock before lines of voters began to form. Within half an hour of opening, many of the voting places in Manhattan were crowded to the limit.

Notwithstanding the deep interest in the election as indicated by the early voting, betting is declared to have been lighter in this city than for years past. Wall street authorities today declared that not over $300,000 has been laid on the result. At the close of betting last night odds were running from 1-2 to 3 in favor of Dix with very little money, however, at the latter figure. What money was placed was largely on the question of pluralities, the prevailing odds being even money that Dix will win by 50,000.

One of the greatest surprises was the eleventh hour admission of Colonel Roosevelt that he is not counting upon a majority of more than 25,000 for Stimson. Chairman Prentiss, of the Republican state committee, has been claiming victory by over 100,000.

That both Colonel Roosevelt and Stimson felt the need of extraordinary efforts on the very eve of election was apparent from the campaign which both made yesterday and which they kept up until midnight.

The final meeting by the colonel was held in Schutzen park, Astoria, Queens county, where over 5,000 people waited until after 10 o'clock to welcome him.

The Democratic managers today continued to stick by their original figures. William S. Rodie, in charge of the Democratic headquarters in the absence of Chairman Huppuch, still declared for the 100,000 mark.

From the Republican headquarters a last appeal for help for today's battle was sent out by Chairman Prentiss. It was in the nature of a circular letter asking for final contributions of $50 each. The letter declared that success of the Democratic ticket in New York state at the present time would mean that the expenditure of several hundred millions of dollars for the barge canal, good roads and other public improvements, which the state has under way, would pass into the control of Democratic officeholders.

The letter likewise predicted that Democratic success at this time would mean the state's vote for the Democratic presidential candidate in 1912.

The heaviest early voting in Manhattan took place on the lower East Side where the election captains were out as early as three this morning, getting the voters out of the lodging and tenement houses.

In Brooklyn, however, the early voting showed a light falling off from that of last year. The Bronx, too, developed a light early vote.

Wants Crippen's Job.
London, England, November 8.—An elderly unidentified man, appeared at the Cambridge police court and requested that he be allowed to hang in place of Dr. Crippen, urging that the professional skill of the latter would prove a blessing to humanity, whereas he himself was of no value to the world. The man displayed eccentricities and his sanity will probably be investigated.

Senator Bradley Ill.
Bowling Green, Ky., Nov. 8.—Senator W. O. Bradley is still seriously ill at the Bowling Green hospital as the result of an attack of acute indigestion. He ate hot biscuits and sordid molasses after a political meeting here Saturday and was taken sick immediately afterwards.

JOHNSON WILL WIN IN CALIFORNIA

By United Press Wire.
San Francisco, Nov. 8.—With ideal weather, the heaviest early vote in years was polled today. Johnson was a clear favorite for governor in the betting, the odds going as high as four to one.

Mr. John W. Gates' rivalry with the Standard Oil company is expected to bring down the price of gasoline so that the main cost of owning an automobile will be the purchase money. That is until Gates and the Standard make up their fight and proceed to take the cost of it out of the public.

Of The Grand Buckeye Commonwealth—4,526 Precincts And Harding Must Gain 4-1-2 Votes Each To Win—Harmon Tooted to Win By From 6,000 to 65,000.

By United Press Wire.
Columbus, O., Nov. 8.—Something like 300,000 of Ohio's electorate is expected to go to the polls today and decide one of the most important election fights in Ohio's history. This decision will place Ohio either in the progressive or standpat column. Early reports indicate a heavy vote being polled. Weather conditions are fair generally over the state.

The close of the campaign saw a sudden spurt in the betting. Harding money came out strong last night. All two to one bets were taken. In one place here over $7,000 was wagered on Harding. The long end was taken at Cleveland.

Reports from Cincinnati that Harding had a chance to carry the county caused the flurry. This report was later confirmed by the arrival here of a Co. emissary.

Anti-Harmon Democrats last night promised at least 10,000 Bryan votes to Harding with thousands more remaining away from the polls. The Bryan Democrats organized a card index system down to precincts. Besides this, four men traveled constantly in each county, sowing seeds of discord.

The vote today will be compared to the Harmon-Harris vote of 1908. There were 4,526 election precincts in Ohio two years ago, and the comparison will be made on this number of precincts.

Harding must make a net gain of 4-1-2 votes to the precinct to win over Harmon.

Democratic leaders were not disturbed by the Harding betting flurry. They say Harmon can lose 100,000 today out of his total vote two years ago and still win. Two years ago he received a total of 552,000 with Bryan at the head of the ticket. Bryan has been the only man that ever got out the full Democratic vote in Ohio. Election history in Ohio shows that in off years, the Democrats, with one exception, since 1891, never polled over 400,000 votes. That exception was John M. Pattison, in 1905. Conditions were unusual that year and Pattison was able to pull out ninety per cent. of the Bryan vote.

A Democratic estimate of the result today, made independent of either state headquarters, elects Harmon by less than 6,000. This estimate was based on private reports received from Democrats and Republicans in every county in the state.

Nothing less than a landslide, it is figured, will lose the Republicans the legislature. This means that Harmon must be elected by from 50,000 to 65,000 to carry with him a legislature. Pattison, carrying the state by 43,000, was unable to pull through a Democratic legislature.

HOOPER WILL WIN ELECTION

In Tennessee by About 25,000 Majority.

By United Press Wire.
Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 8.—Reports from all over the state indicate that a heavy vote is being polled and that B. W. Hooper, Fusion candidate for governor, will
